

Train The Trainer

THE PROGRAM

This intensive training provides our delegates with the necessary skills required to become professional trainers. It enables them to prepare and present trainings in a high professional manner. Our learning journey to qualify you as a trainer is based on the latest learning theories and techniques. This course is distinguished by the multiplicity of activities and the variety of audio and visual resources.

You will learn

- To differentiate between teaching and training.
- To define training needs.
- To design a training course
- To develop presentation skills
- To design activities
- To evaluate training
- To deal with different kinds of participants

THE TRAINER: MOHAMMAD MOHARRAM

An educational expert, professional trainer, expert researcher and curriculum designer with over 15 years of experience in the education and training field.

Mohammad worked as a training consultant for several prestigious institutions and training centres and has trained over 2000 trainees across the Gulf.

